

Tim Moore

46 Years of Entrepreneurship

While a young junior high teacher in 1970, Tim Moore discovered that he had the ability to engage and mentor. These attributes laid the foundation for a lifetime of success building major businesses and creating hundreds of entrepreneurs.

Tim is the founder of numerous companies including AMJ Campbell Van Lines; Premiere Executive Suites; Premiere Van Lines; Premiere Self-Storage; Premiere Mortgage Center; Oceanstone Resorts and his latest venture, Moore Executive Suites.

In each of these endeavours Tim personally recruited talented individuals and encouraged them to embrace entrepreneurship. By the late 1980's, the business elite took notice of Tim's abilities. He was featured in a book "The New Entrepreneurs: 80 Canadian Success Stories". This was followed by nearly 20 years of media attention, including radio and television interviews, numerous magazine and newspaper articles and two major feature profiles in Profit magazine.

As the author of two well received books, "On the Move" and "You Don't Need an MBA to Make Millions", Tim shared the story of his journey and a practical guide to becoming a successful entrepreneur. In addition, Tim's accomplishments were recognized through several public awards: The Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal; The Distinguished Service Award from the Canadian Mover's Association and the Certificate of Merit, Entrepreneur Category by the Canada Awards for Business Excellence. Tim was also honoured as one of the Top 50 CEO's for Atlantic Canada for two consecutive years and named as Master Entrepreneur of the Year, Atlantic Region.

Knowing how fortunate he has been in business, Tim has made sure to give back through mentoring and charitable activities including Junior Achievement of Canada; Best Buddies of Canada; Canadian Olympic Association; The Alzheimer Association of Nova Scotia and The Mental Health Association of Nova Scotia. As a former Board Member of St. Mary's Tim has been a generous supporter of the University and continues to find ways to engage his community.
