Robert Patzelt, Q.C., ICD.D

Chief Executive Officer

Robert Patzelt is a CEO and business lawyer with 30 years of experience in organizational leadership, operations, mergers and acquisitions and business development. He is a strong and effective communicator and skilled negotiator with recognized expertise in law, risk management and corporate governance. He is also a respected Board Director for multiple organizations and the leader of a number of major initiatives in corporate, not-for-profit and non-governmental agencies including some undergoing major transformational change.

He is an award-winning business leader who has levered his degrees in business, economics and his Masters' of law to serve many organizations including most recently as CEO of New Millennium Iron Corp., a publicly traded resource company, leading it through the most recent commodity cycle downturn building on his reorganization skills and previously was on the executive leadership team with the Jodrey family at Scotia Investments Limited. He was also co-Chair of the Premier's Advisory Council on the Economy and is respected for his ability to work effectively with government and in multi-stakeholder environments. He has held leading volunteer positions in such not-for-profit organizations as Canadian Manufacturers and Exporters, the Canadian Corporate Counsel Association, Risk and Insurance Management Society and Scouts Canada. He has been formally recognized many times by the entities he has served including having received both the Queen's Golden and Diamond Jubilee medals for his tremendous service.

His ability to solve problems and communicate his analysis comes from his multi-disciplinary background and approach and is coupled with his high-energy and passion to best serve the people and their organizations. Robert is a sought-after public speaker whose topics naturally include business, law and leadership but also for his motivational and humorous discourses on a wide variety of topics.
